Good Morning Year 1, We hope you had a lovely weekend?

Date: Monday 18th January
TBQ: Can I plan my story?

Steps to Success:

- I can talk about my story ideas.
- I can talk about the beginning, middle and end of my story.
- I can plan a story that has a problem and a solution.
- I can write key words on my story plan and tell it to a partner.

Let's start with our handwriting

Handwriting practice area with multiple sets of lines (top solid, middle dashed, bottom solid). The first line contains a cursive letter 'r'.

See if you can remember...

Can you remember whether these are fiction or non-fiction?
Explain to your Grown Up how you know.

Fiction is made up, you need to use your imagination when you are writing it. Types of fiction include plays, stories and poems.

There are many different types of non-fiction writing, such as newspapers, adverts, brochures, reference books and biographies. A non-fiction book is about facts. You can't just make it up.

We are going to use the ideas from these two stories to help us to plan our own story based in London.

Stories often have a problem that needs to be solved. What were the problems in the stories we read?

Problem - Grandma falls asleep and leaves Katie and Jack to wait.

Solution - The lion wakes up and takes

Problem - The crowds are so big that Paddington doesn't get to see the guards.

Solution - Paddington gets a special invitation to take a photo with the guard.

Our story will be called Adventure in London!

Think about the characters that will be in your story.

What problem might they face?

What will the solution be?
