TBQ: Can I write the middle and end of my story?

Steps to Success:

- I can talk about what happens in my story.
- I can write sentences that make sense.
- I can write a simple story middle and end, using story language.
- I can write the middle and end of my story, using story language and linking some sentences with 'and'

Let's start with our handwriting

Handwriting practice area with four sets of lines. Each set consists of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The first set shows a cursive lowercase letter 'j' written between the middle and bottom lines.

Today we are going to finish off our Adventure story

Let's look at our success criteria from yesterday.

Did we remember to include all of these things yesterday?

Capital letters for names and places and at the start of sentences.
Full stops at the end of sentences.
Finger spaces between words.
Tricky words spelled correctly.
Link some sentences using 'and' or 'but'.

Today we are continuing the story from where we finished yesterday. Start by reading what you wrote yesterday to make sure you know where to start.

Look at your story plans to see what happens in your story.

I can't wait to read the rest of your story!!!
